1 . Main points

- Overall retail footfall decreased by 5% in the week to 5 January 2025 when compared with the previous week but increased by 5% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024 (MRI OnLocation).
- High street and shopping centre footfall both decreased by 7% when compared with the previous week but increased by 6% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024; retail park footfall increased by 1% when compared with the previous week and increased by 4% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024 (MRI OnLocation).
- In late December 2024, of the 23% of businesses that reported having at least one concern about their future supply chains, 44% reported that they expect to be affected by the increased costs of sourcing materials, up 8 percentage points from late September 2024; other concerns included increased transportation costs (31%) and increased labour costs (24%), up 3 and 8 percentage points, respectively, over the same period (final results from Wave 123 of the Business Insights and Conditions Survey).
- The System Average Price (SAP) of gas increased by 5% from 3.996 pence per kilowatt hour (p/kWh) to 4.207p/kWh in the week to 5 January 2025, when compared with the previous week; it also increased by 52% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024, which had a seven-day average price of 2.763p /kWh (National Gas Transmission).
- The System Price of electricity decreased by 11% from 9.638p/kWh to 8.533p/kWh when compared with the previous week, but increased by 20% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024, which had a seven-day average price of 7.139p/kWh (Elexon).
- The number of ship visits to major UK ports increased by 18% in the week to 5 January 2025, when compared with the previous week, but decreased by 14% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024; the number of UK flights increased by 11% week-on-week and increased by 2% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024 (exactEarth, EUROCONTROL).

These are official statistics in development, and we advise caution when using the data. The data sources used to compile these indicators are regularly reviewed to ensure they are representative and relevant, which may mean indicators change at short notice. Read more in Section 5: Data sources and quality.

2 . Latest indicators at a glance

Notes:

1. Card spending over time is pushed upwards by the impacts of both inflation on value of transactions and cash-to-card conversion.
2. Revolut adjustments to user count are at an aggregate level and as such, age bands may not adjust evenly.
3. Indicators with SA in the title have been seasonally adjusted.

4 . Glossary

A real-time indicator provides insights into economic activity using close-to-real-time big data, administrative data sources, rapid response surveys or experimental estimates, which represent useful economic and social concepts.

Seasonal adjustment

Seasonal adjustment is the identification and removal of consistent and systematic variation in time series associated with the time of year. For more information on seasonal variation, and how we implement seasonal adjustment, see Section 2 of our Economic activity and social change in the UK, real-time indicators methodology article.

5 . Data sources and quality

Official statistics in development

These statistics are labelled as official statistics in development. Until September 2023, these were called "experimental statistics". Read more about the change in our Guide to official statistics in development.

We are developing how we collect and produce the data to improve the quality of these statistics. Find out more in our Economic activity and social change in the UK, real-time indicators methodology article.

Once the developments are complete, we will review the statistics with the Statistics Head of Profession. We will decide if the statistics are of sufficient quality and value to be published as official statistics, or if further development is needed. Production may be stopped if they are not of sufficient quality or value. Users will be informed of the outcome and any changes.

We value your feedback on these statistics. If you would like to get in touch, please email realtime.indicators@ons.gov.uk.

Strengths and limitations

These statistics have been produced to provide timely indicators of the effect of developing world events on the UK economy and society, using close-to-real-time big data, administrative data sources, rapid response surveys, or official statistics in development.

The data presented in this bulletin are reviewed and refreshed on a regular basis. Indicators are swapped in and out of the publication based on their suitability and availability.

Seasonality

Seasonal fluctuations are likely to be present in many of these indicators, so caution must be applied when interpreting changes in series that are not seasonally adjusted.
