1 . Main points

- Overall retail footfall increased by 4% in the week to 27 July 2025 compared with the previous week, but decreased by 1% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024; the weekly increase coincides with the start of the summer holidays, but when compared with the equivalent week of 2024, both high street and retail park footfall decreased by 1%, while shopping centre footfall remained broadly unchanged (MRI OnLocation).
- Around half of businesses trading in July 2025 reported not experiencing any challenges when selling goods or services to customers in other UK nations (51.2%); this was down 5 percentage points (56.2%) from April 2025 (initial results from Wave 137 of the Business Insights and Conditions Survey).
- The total number of ship visits to major UK ports in the week to 27 July 2025 decreased by 1% compared with the previous week, and decreased by 11% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024; cargo ships and tankers saw the largest decrease (15%) when compared with the equivalent week of 2024 (exactEarth).
- The number of seasonally adjusted daily UK flights remained broadly unchanged in the week to 27 July 2025 compared with the previous week, but increased by 1% when compared with the equivalent week of 2024 (EUROCONTROL).
- The System Average Price (SAP) of gas decreased by 4% in the week to 27 July 2025, compared with the previous week, but remained 8% higher than the equivalent week of 2024 (National Gas Transmission).
- The total number of Energy Performance Certificates (EPCs) for new dwellings across England and Wales decreased by 8% in the week to 27 July 2025, compared with the previous week, but was 4% higher when compared with the equivalent week of 2024 (Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government).

These are official statistics in development, and we advise caution when using the data. The data sources used to compile these indicators are regularly reviewed to ensure they are representative and relevant, which may mean indicators change at short notice. 2 . Latest indicators at a glance

Notes:

1. Card spending over time is pushed upwards by the impacts of both inflation on the value of transactions and cash-to-card conversion.
2. Revolut adjustments to user count are at an aggregate level and as such age bands may not adjust evenly.
3. Indicators with SA in the title have been seasonally adjusted.
4. Existing weekly EPC data can show sudden spikes when housing associations lodge multiple expired EPCs at once.

4 . Glossary

Real-time indicator

A real-time indicator provides insights into economic activity using close-to-real-time big data, administrative data sources, rapid response surveys or experimental estimates, which represent useful economic and social concepts.

Seasonal adjustment

Seasonal adjustment is the identification and removal of consistent and systematic variation in time series associated with the time of year. For more information on seasonal variation, and how we implement seasonal adjustment, see Section 2 of our Economic activity and social change in the UK, real-time indicators methodology article.

5 . Data sources and quality

Official statistics in development

These statistics are labelled as official statistics in development. Until September 2023, these were called "experimental statistics". Read more about the change in our Guide to official statistics in development.

We are developing how we collect and produce the data to improve the quality of these statistics. Find out more in our Economic activity and social change in the UK, real-time indicators methodology article.

Once the developments are complete, we will review the statistics with the Statistics Head of Profession. We will decide if the statistics are of sufficient quality and value to be published as official statistics, or if further development is needed. Production may be stopped if they are not of sufficient quality or value. Users will be informed of the outcome and any changes.

We value your feedback on these statistics. If you would like to get in touch, please email realtime.indicators@ons.gov.uk.

Dataset release dates and intended release frequency

Latest release dates and intended release frequency of our associated datasets are available in this section. Please note that there may be some change to the intended release frequency for a variety of reasons, such as data availability. If you would like further information about any of these datasets, or previous release dates, please email realtime.indicators@ons.gov.uk.

Strengths and limitations

These statistics have been produced to provide timely indicators of the effect of developing world events on the UK economy and society. We use close-to-real-time big data, administrative data sources, rapid response surveys, or official statistics in development.

The data presented in this bulletin are reviewed and refreshed on a regular basis. Indicators are swapped in and out of the publication based on their suitability and availability.

Seasonality

Seasonal fluctuations are likely to be present in many of these indicators, so caution must be applied when interpreting changes in series that are not seasonally adjusted.
